

Local Campus Stipends
Wisconsin Women in Higher Education Leadership
(WWHEL)

Purpose:

The WWHEL Board of Directors, through college and/or university Institutional Representatives (IRs), encourages activities that support and address issues important to the advancement of women at all levels. To that end, the Board has authorized stipends to be used to support activities (book clubs, discussion groups, materials, etc.) as decided by the local campuses. A maximum of fifteen (15) stipends annually will be awarded for a maximum amount of $500 per institution. The WWHEL Board has the right to alter the number of stipends based on funding availability.

Application Process:

To apply, Institutional Representatives (IRs) should:

- Write a letter (2-page maximum, 12-point font) identifying the educational institution, name of Institutional Representative (IR), amount requested (maximum $500.00), and activity planned.
- Send the letter electronically in PDF format by October 1 to Anne Marie Krause, WWHEL Vice President, akrause@blackhawk.edu.

Only one application per institution will be considered.

Reporting Process for Stipend Recipients:

- When an institution receiving a stipend schedules an event, an invitation should be sent to, WWHEL Vice President, akrause@blackhawk.edu. (A WWHEL Board member, if available, may attend the event.)
- By July 1 of each year, the Institutional Representative should submit a brief electronic report to Anne Marie Krause, WWHEL Vice President, akrause@blackhawk.edu, summarizing the activities supported with the $500 stipend.

Evaluation Criteria:

Applications will be reviewed by a panel of WWHEL Board Members and awarded based on the scope of activities planned.

Application Deadline:

Applications are due to Anne Marie Krause, WWHEL Vice President, electronically in a PDF format by October 31. Questions? Go to www.wwhel.org and click on "Contact WWHEL."
